Good cause run

By MICHAEL FAIRBAIRN

NO one likes running in winter but once in a while it's for a good cause, that's when you should dust off the runners and hit the pavement.

This weekend is annual Earle Page College Coast Run, a two-day relay style event that takes runners from Armidale through Dorrigo down to the end of Coffs Harbour Jetty.

"Last year we raised $4000 for the Children's Medical Research Institute," committee member Jason Crook said.

This will be the 36th Coast Run which has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars for the institute over that time. "We have exactly 50 items up for auction this year," Keegan Cirillo, who is in charge of the auction, said.

Some of the other big items include a Sydney Harbour Bridge Climb, a weekend away for two and a range of artworks.

The auction will be at 11am in the college and is being run by professional auctioneer Peter Georkas.

The Coast Run takes place on August 14 and 16 and all are encouraged to become involved.

To RSVP for the auction lunch call the college on 6779 5300.

RUNNING WILD: Jess Brient, Keegan Cirillo, Jason Crook and Matt Griffin.
