

Eastwood's Yuhu Group aids local charities

Published February 3, 2015 | By admin

The Yuhu Group owner of Eastwood Shopping Centre launched their 2015 Giving Day celebrations at Eastwood Uniting Church on Monday morning, pictured above.

Yuhu Group's Giving Day was initiated in 2011 and since the Group took over Eastwood Shopping Centre they have donated $2.92 millions to cultural relations, education, medical research, religion, social welfare and disaster relief.

This year Yuhu Group will give $743,000 to eight organisations and charities of which six are in Eastwood.

The Eastwood groups are Tzu Chi Eastwood, Eastwood Public School, St Kevin's Catholic School, Christian Community Aid and Eastwood Uniting Church for their English language classes.

The other two organisations are Children's Medical Research Institute Westmead and Bear Cottage Manly. This year's Giving Day event is this Friday at The Westin Hotel in Sydney.

PICTURED is Yuhu Group Company Secretary Anna Wu making a presentation to Eastwood Uniting Church English language classes Co-ordinator Rev Marion Bird on Monday with joint Co-ordinator Val Bird, Eastwood Chamber of Commerce President Vic Tagg, Eastwood Shopping Centre Manager Ray Khoury, Shereen Khor and William. TWT on-the-spot PHOTO.